

House Resolution No. 395

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State couples who have admirably demonstrated the strength, depth, and vitality of their love through the longevity of their marital vows; and

Whereas, fifty years ago Robin R. Wycoff took the lovely hand of his beautiful bride, the former Ina M. Middaugh, as the two pledged their troth during a solemn wedding ceremony which took place on January 29, 1955, in Holy Rosary Church of Kansas City, Missouri; and

Whereas, five decades later Robin and Ina Wycoff of Raymore observed their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary with a festive gathering of family members and friends on January 29, 2005; and

Whereas, the marital union of Robin and Ina Wycoff has been richly blessed with the love and affection of their children, Christina Marie Brookhart, Robin Ray Wycoff, Jr., and Paula Sue McWhirt; nine grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, Robin Wycoff supported his growing family through his professional labors as a police officer who remains “on call” in retirement as a detective for Crystal Lakes in Ray County, while Ina Wycoff made her familial contributions as a housewife and as a school bus driver for the Lee’s Summit R-VII School District; and

Whereas, Robin and Ina Wycoff share an interest in visiting with family members, fishing, and participating in First Assembly of God Church activities in Raytown; and

Whereas, Robin and Ina Wycoff used the occasion of their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary to reflect on the many changes which have occurred in their lives, in society, and around the world since the blessed day they became husband and wife; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses in its diverse daily activities in order to recognize such stellar citizens as Robin and Ina Wycoff during momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive marriage engaged in by Robin and Ina Wycoff and to convey to them this legislative body’s heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as they celebrate their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Robin and Ina Wycoff of Raymore, Missouri.
